Judge: Mr. Whitney Prentice

Born in 1958, Whitney is the son of cartoonist, illustrator, and award-winning John F. Prentice who wrote and drew the syndicated comic strip "Rip Kirby." Whitney spent his formative years in the company of his father's friends and colleagues who were mostly artists. His work was published in American Artist Magazine. He is a Bold Brush Painting Competition Top 10% winner. He has executed numerous private commissions and his artwork is in private collections. He is currently a faculty member at Paier College of Art, Hamden, CT and Silvermine Art. He won the Jay Verbutis Award for excellence in the field of fine arts there. He furthered his art training at the Lyme Academy College of Fine Art earning a professional certificate and at the Graduate School of Figurative Art, New York Academy, earning an MFA, cum laude, in 1999.
